WAYNE NELSON APPOINTED TO BOARD OF COUNTY ROAD COMMISSIONERS

THE COUNTY ROAD COMMISSION WANTS YOU TO KNOW . . .

Wayne Nelson was recently appointed by the Van Buren Board of County Commissioners to serve as a Road Commissioner. The seat being appointed was left vacant when Todd Hackenberg resigned and expires on December 31, 2024. Several applications for the position on the Road Commission Board were received by the Board of County Commissioners which conducted interviews on September 6, 2022.

Mr. Nelson's experience in government services includes serving as the Treasurer of Van Buren County (1984-1996), Alma Township Treasurer (2000-2008), City of Kalamazoo Deputy Assessor/Treasurer (2003-2013), de facto IT Director for Van Buren County (1992-1996), as well as service on several Van Buren County outside department boards.

Wayne Nelson joins current Road Commission board members W.C. Askew, Sr., District 1 (Bangor, Covert, Geneva and South Haven Townships), Doug Burleson, District 2 (Bloomington, Columbia and Pine Grove Townships), Rick Boze, District 3 (Hamilton, Hartford, Keeler and Lawrence Townships), and Gregory H. Kinney, District 4 (Arlington, Decatur, Paw Paw and Waverly Townships). Commissioner Nelson will serve as a liaison to District 5 which includes the Townships of Alma, Antwerp and Porter.
